The Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA) of Manila Inc. will hold the 12th YMCA National Club Advisers' Seminar-Workshop and Junior Leaders Campference at the Senior Mess, Teachers Camp, Baguio City, on December 19-21, 2025.

With the theme, Transformation: Discovering Potential, Braver for Tomorrow, this annual program will gather around 300 elementary students and club advisers from different public and private schools nationwide.

The Campference specifically aims to

1. foster awareness of different positive adaptive coping strategies, their specific examples, and some of the best practices on how to apply them in real-world use cases;
2. provide psychological safety or a safe space for the participants through effective engagement in a meaningful dialogue and sharing of thoughts and experiences with the group without the fear of judgment and unhealthy criticism;
3. encourage participants to make a conscious effort in managing their personal and interpersonal issues and therefore sustain their emotional wellbeing and psychological development; and
4. build and nourish a community of support within the participants' social network, including but not limited to their immediate families and close circle of friends.

Interested participants may register through the link: bit.ly/YMCACampference. For updates and further details, visit the YMCA of Manila's official Facebook page: facebook.com/YMCACampference.
