Message

Warmest congratulations to the graduates of School Year 2025-2026.

This year's theme, “Pilipinong Nagsipagtapos: Handang Mamuno nang May Kakayahan at Mabuting Pagkatao,” reminds us that graduation is not only a celebration of academic achievement but also a recognition of young individuals who are now ready to lead with competence, integrity, and character.

Throughout School Year 2025-2026, our learners have been guided by an education system that aims to nurture not only intellectual excellence but also moral responsibility. Through a strengthened curriculum, the dedication of our teachers, and the active support of parents and community partners, our schools have worked together to equip every learner with the knowledge, skills, and values necessary to become responsible leaders in their respective communities.

Our learners were taught to think critically, work with others, and face challenges with courage and resilience. They were guided to lead with integrity, make sound decisions, and serve the greater good. These qualities are vital for our graduates. Sooner or later, they will become leaders. When that time comes, they must lead wisely. They should value collaboration and unity. This is especially important in a world where conflicts, like those in the Middle East, continue to grow. Leaders must focus on bringing nations together, not dividing them.

To our graduates, as you step beyond the halls of your alma mater, carry with you the lessons you have learned during your years in school. Remember that being capable is not enough. True leadership requires character. The values emphasized in your Values Education lessons: honesty, respect, discipline, compassion, and responsibility must remain at the core of your decisions and actions wherever life may lead you.

I also extend my deepest appreciation to our teachers and school leaders who have devoted their time, expertise, and passion to guiding our learners. Your dedication continues to inspire excellence and integrity among the young people entrusted to our care.

Once again, congratulations to all our future leaders. My heartfelt thanks go to the parents who nurtured them, the teachers who guided them, and all stakeholders whose support made this achievement possible. Your collective efforts have shaped the leaders of tomorrow.

Eak-ang Aklan!
