3. In this regard, all public elementary and secondary schools, district offices, and Division Office personnel are encouraged to extend their voluntary support by participating in the online voting and disseminating information about the Division's official entry to their respective school communities and stakeholders.

4. The online voting platform is now open. Interested participants may cast their votes by following these procedures:
   a. Visit the official competition website at https://npmc.op.gov.ph/.
   b. Locate Entry No. 48 – Malinao School for Philippine Craftsmen.
   c. Click the VOTE button, tick the confirmation box, and select CONTINUE.
   d. Accomplish the required registration details, including name and city. Providing mobile number and email address is optional. Click CONTINUE.
   e. Enter the verification code sent to the registered email address or mobile number, as instructed.
   f. Upon successful voting, save or take a screenshot of the generated reference number for personal documentation.
   g. No learners allowed.

5. Participants are reminded that only one (1) vote per registered mobile number is allowed, subject to the official competition guidelines. Participation shall be entirely voluntary, and the privacy of participants' personal information shall be respected.

6. School heads are encouraged to facilitate the dissemination of this information through appropriate school communication channels and to invite interested personnel, parents, alumni, and other stakeholders to support the Division's representative.

7. This initiative provides an opportunity for the entire SDO Aklan community to celebrate and recognize the ingenuity of its learners and to demonstrate collective pride in the artistic and cultural heritage of the Province of Aklan.

8. Wide dissemination of this Memorandum is desired.
